Jesus Christ

OUR EMMANUEL

Our Saviour & God With Us

CEFMORSI GLOBAL WORKSPACE TEAM

EDITORIAL NOTE

JESUS CHRIST OUR EMMANUEL OUR SAVIOUR AND GOD WITH US

As we step into the month of December, our hearts are gently drawn to the greatest mystery and miracle ever revealed to humanity - God became one of us, and God is forever with us. The birth of Jesus Christ is more than a historical event; it is the divine announcement that Heaven has come near, Love has taken on flesh, and Salvation has walked into our world with grace, truth, and power.

This edition invites us to pause, reflect, and rejoice over the timeless truth that we are never alone. Emmanuel is not merely a name; it is God's eternal commitment to dwell with, walk with, strengthen, comfort, lead, save, and transform us. From the prophecies in Isaiah to the angelic declaration in Matthew and the humble wonder of the manger in Luke, we celebrate the God who stepped into our darkness so His light could shine within us.

As you journey through the pages of this month's magazine, may you encounter afresh the peace, hope, and presence that Jesus brings. May the story of His birth rekindle awe in your heart. And may the assurance of God with you shape your decisions, inspire your worship, and empower your daily walk.

Welcome to a glorious December.
Emmanuel - God with us, God in us, and God for us.

Blessings to you.

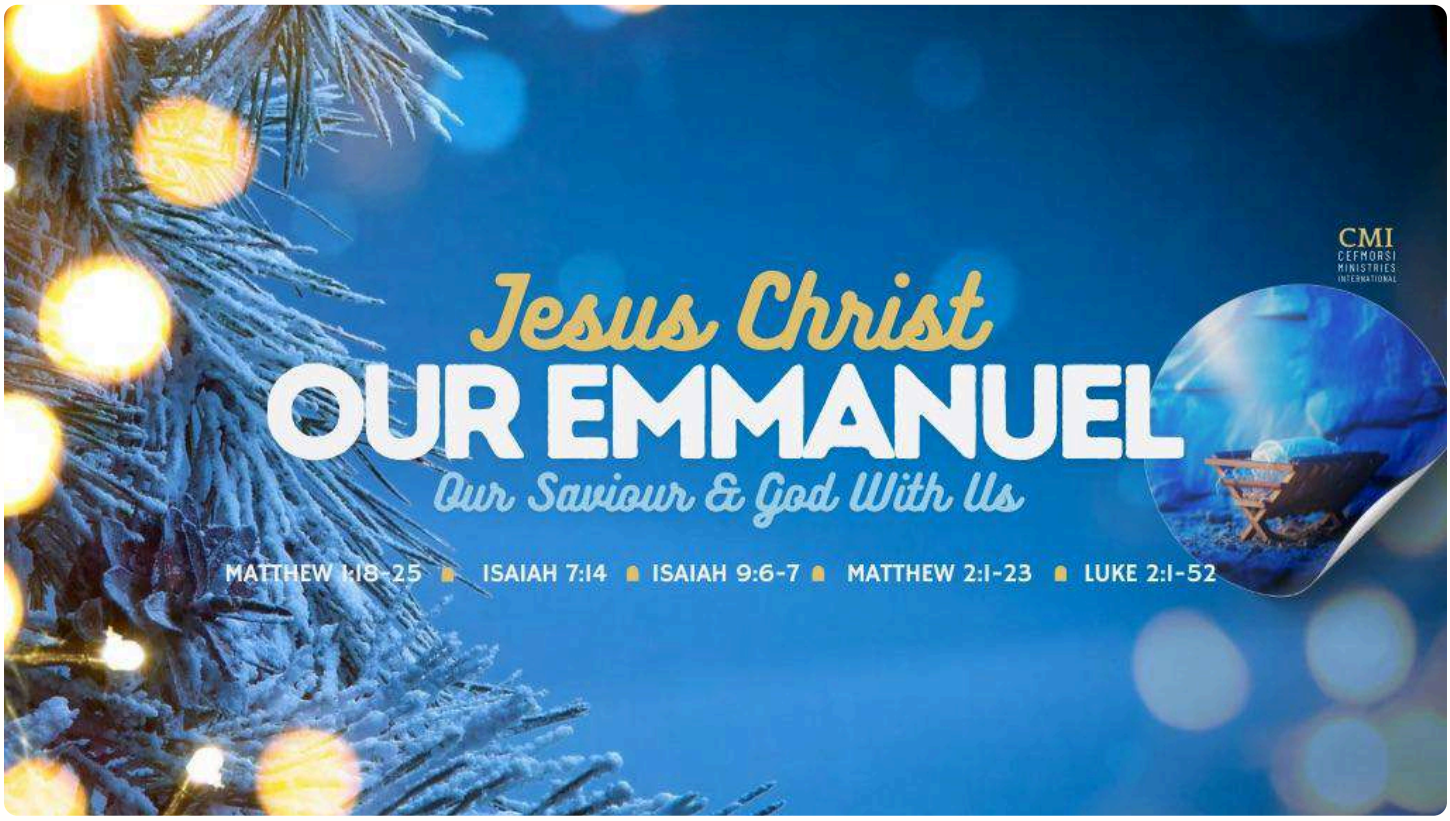
WELCOME TO THE MONTH OF DECEMBER 2025

JESUS CHRIST – OUR EMMANUEL! – "THE SAVIOUR & THE GOD WITH US"



"And great, we confess, is the MYSTERY [the hidden truth] of GODLINESS: He (Jesus Christ) who was REVEALED in HUMAN FLESH, Was JUSTIFIED and VINDICATED in the Spirit, SEEN by angels, PREACHED among the nations, BELIEVED on in the world, TAKEN up in glory." 1 Timothy 3:16 / Amplified

I specially WELCOME you to Month December 2025 - the last month of the Julian and Gregorian calendar year. In the Christian community - the Believers in God through Christ Jesus - the Month of December is the season in which we commemorate the CHRISTMAS: the humanity birth of the God-Man, Christ Jesus. Amen.

"And THE WORD (Christ) became FLESH [HUMAN], and lived among us; and we [actually] saw His glory, glory as belongs to the [One and] only begotten Son of the Father… full of grace and truth." John 1:14 / Amplified.

"For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, THE WORD, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one." 1 John 5:7

The Birth of Jesus Christ is the hallmark of Christmas.

CHRISTMAS is an annual commemoration and celebration of God's LOVE in Christ Jesus and His REDEMPTION cause on earth for the good of humanity.

I specially WELCOME you to Month December 2025 - the last month of the Julian and Gregorian calendar year. In the Christian community - the Believers in God through Christ Jesus - the Month of December is the season in which we commemorate the CHRISTMAS: the humanity birth of the God-Man, Christ Jesus. Amen.

The essence of Christmas does not depend on whether Christ Jesus was born in December or on another date, as many have argued in different denominational settings.

"…To this END was I BORN, and for this CAUSE came I into the world, that I should bear WITNESS unto the truth…" John 18:37

"…For this PURPOSE the Son of God was MANIFESTED [REVEALED], that he might DESTROY the WORKS of the devil." 1 John 3:8

And so, this Month December 2025 is themed: JESUS CHRIST – OUR EMMANUEL! – "THE SAVIOUR & THE GOD WITH US."

This theme highlights our exploration of Christ Jesus - our SAVIOUR, the One who brings our SALVATION and whose PRINCIPLES guide us to live as He lived in humanity. It also calls us to understand the implications of Him being OUR EMMANUEL, the GOD WITH US, as we do life and live godly in the grace.

The prophecy of His birth must be known and understood by every believer, for His coming in the flesh was foretold centuries earlier. These prophecies are found in Isaiah 9:6–7; Isaiah 7:14; Micah 5:2, spoken by holy prophets under divine inspiration as they were moved by the Holy Spirit (2 Timothy 3:16–17; 2 Peter 1:19–21; Hebrews 1:1–14). And by the working of God, these ancient prophecies were fulfilled in the accounts of Matthew 1:18–20, 23 and Luke 2:1–20.

Christ means the Anointed One, the Messiah, the Saviour, the Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

Throughout this Month December 2025, as we approach Christmas Day, we will discuss and explore the birth of Jesus Christ - our Saviour, Lord, and King - and what His Person and His Principles mean to us today as we do life on earth and live godly toward Father God.

Jesus Christ Our Emmanuel

For it is possible to know about Him without knowing Him, and possible to celebrate Christmas without understanding the principles of His grace toward us as the NEW CREATION in Him.

"Jesus Christ is [eternally changeless, always] the same yesterday and today and forever." Hebrews 13:8 / Amplified

Therefore, as we consider the birth of our Saviour, Lord, and soon-coming King - in the context of Revelation 1:10–18; Revelation 19:16; Matthew 28:18; Philippians 3:21; Ephesians 1:20, and more - let it be known:

HE IS NO LONGER:

- The babe in the manger
- The servant to death
- The limited one
- Nor the Christ on the Cross

HE IS NOW:

- The God on the Throne - seated at the right hand of God
- The Omnipotent (Unlimited, All-Powerful)
- The Omnipresent (Everywhere at once)
- The Omniscient (All-Knowing)

As we go through this Month December and this Christmas season, let the true essence of the celebration become our conviction: "The commemoration and celebration of God's LOVE in Christ Jesus and His REDEMPTION cause on earth for the good of humanity."

It is my earnest PRAYER for you that the essence of Christmas in this Month December will define you afresh - strengthening, guiding, and preparing you to take on the upcoming year bravely, wisely, and triumphantly in Christ Jesus' stead. Amen.

FURTHER SCRIPTURAL STUDY:
Isaiah 7:14/Amplified, Isaiah 9:6-7, Micah 5:2, Matthew 16:13-20, Matthew 1:18-25, Luke 2:1-52, Matthew 2:1-23.

ENACTING "THE LOVE OF GOD WITH US" — IN CHRIST JESUS!

Ecclesiastes 7:8–10; Matthew 1:23; Psalm 65:11

A Blessed Welcome Into December 2025

"Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. 9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools. 10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this." — Ecclesiastes 7:8–10 (KJV)

Beloved friend, I warmly welcome you into this crowning, joyful, and blessed month - the month of enacting "THE LOVE OF GOD WITH US" in Christ Jesus, a love far beyond knowledge or comprehension.
As we enter December 2025, I speak over you: A better ending, not a bitter ending. May the Lord crown this year with His goodness, abundance, and mercy!

The God Who Crowns the Year

"Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side. 13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing." — Psalm 65:11–13 (KJV)

This Scripture is God's assurance to you. This year is not permitted to end in emptiness. This month is not allowed to close in sorrow. Your December is spiritually programmed for goodness, fatness, joy, and abundance - because God is with you.

It Is Not Over Until God Says So

In this month of December, it is important to know this truth: IT IS NOT OVER UNTIL GOD SAYS IT IS OVER.

Do not:

- Give up
- Grow angry
- Become fearful
- Assume the best part of the year is gone
- Declare that "better days are behind me"

Scripture says such a confession is not wise (Ecclesiastes 7:10).
God is faithful to His promises even to the last second of the year (Hebrews 10:23;
1 Thessalonians 5:24).
He is still able to bring forth tangible results - blessings, breakthroughs, restorations, and answers - as you stand in faith
(Romans 5:1–2).

The love of God with us

Ecclesiastes 7:8–10; Matthew 1:23; Psalm 65:11

Your Confession for the Month

I encourage you to boldly declare: "I AM GOING TO HAVE A BETTER ENDING - NOT A BITTER ENDING - IN DECEMBER 2025".
Say it daily. Say it prayerfully. Say it with faith. Say it as one who understands that God is with you.

Emmanuel - God With Us

This month, as we commemorate and celebrate the mystery of Emmanuel - GOD WITH US, we are reminded of the greatest expression of God's love: Christ Jesus and His redemptive work.

This revelation should cause your heart to leap with joy - an exceeding great joy! You are alive today, witnessing each unfolding day, because your purpose in Christ remains intact and meaningful (Romans 8:28–30; Ephesians 1:11–12).

So, rise, rejoice, and shout a victorious Hallelujah!
Emmanuel is with you - and His presence guarantees hope, strength, and divine accomplishment.

FURTHER SCRIPTURAL STUDY:
Ecclesiastes 7:8-10, Matthew 1:23, Proverbs 27:17, Proverbs 18:24, Romans 5:1-2, 1 Timothy 3:9, Matthew 1:23, Luke 2:11.

IGNORANCE - A DEADLY AND KILLER DISEASE: DON'T KEEP COMPANY WITH IGNORANCE - KEEP IT FAR AWAY!

"And the times of this IGNORANCE God WINKED [OVERLOOKED] at; but now COMMANDETH all men EVERY WHERE to REPENT: 31 because he hath APPOINTED a day, in the which he will JUDGE the world in RIGHTEOUSNESS by that man whom he hath ORDAINED; whereof he hath given ASSURANCE unto all men, in that he hath RAISED him from the dead" Acts 17:30-31.

Ignorance is not harmless. It is a silent destroyer, a spiritual disease that cripples destiny, limits growth, and blinds the believer from walking in the light of God's truth. To be INFORMED is to be TRANSFORMED and EMANCIPATED. Life is worth living, and in Christ, it is meant to be lived with understanding, revelation, clarity and truth. Therefore, give no room to ignorance in matters of life and godliness.

Do not allow ignorance to make you a prey in the hands of the enemy.
Don't tolerate it. Don't partner with it. Don't excuse it.
Seek knowledge. Pursue it. Buy it. Own it. Guard it as a treasure.

Jesus Himself warned,
"Ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God." - Matthew 22:29

THE PRICELESS VALUE OF KNOWLEDGE

"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto TREASURE hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he HIDETH, and for joy thereof GOETH and SELLETH all that he hath, and BUYETH that field. 45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a MERCHANT man, seeking GOODLY PEARLS:

46 who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and SOLD all that he had, and BOUGHT it" Matthew 13:44-46.

Knowledge is treasure, and the believer must pursue it with intentionality. This pursuit is not optional - it is vital to growth and spiritual soundness.
And here lies one of the greatest Christmas-season lessons from the life of Jesus:

JESUS - GOD WITH US - YET A SEEKER OF KNOWLEDGE (Luke 2:41–52)

In Luke 2:41–52, we see a profound picture of Jesus at age twelve. Though He was God in the flesh - Emmanuel - God with us, He still submitted Himself to the discipline of learning. He sat among teachers, listening, asking questions, engaging with Scripture, seeking deeper understanding. He was not casual about knowledge. He was not complacent. He did not permit ignorance - not even as a child.
This silently but powerfully teaches us: If JESUS sought knowledge, how much more must we?

He grew in wisdom, stature, and favour with God, and with men (Luke 2:52). Growth requires knowledge. Favour is strengthened by understanding. Destiny is shaped by revelation. The Son of God modelled for us the posture we must take: a humble, intentional, persistent hunger for knowledge.

INVEST IN KNOWLEDGE - IT WILL DISTINGUISH YOU

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." - 2 Timothy 2:15.

"But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; 15 and that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: 17 that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works." - 2 Timothy 3:14–17.

Invest in your growth. Read. Research. Ask questions. Think. Seek understanding. Attend places where truth is taught without prejudice or hypocrisy. Buy books. Study diligently. Build yourself daily.
Do not pursue knowledge for success alone, but for fulfillment, purpose, and accuracy in destiny. For excellence without understanding is instability; success without knowledge is fragile.

Make the WORD OF GOD your primary foundation. Other books may inform you, but the Bible TRANSFORMS you. It is the only book whose Author is present every time you read it. Become like the Bereans - noble, discerning, grounded (Acts 17:10–12).
You are responsible for your own growth. You are the custodian of your own joy and fulfillment.

KNOWLEDGE PROTECTS - IGNORANCE DESTROYS

"The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness." - Proverbs 15:14.
"The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge." - Proverbs 18:15

Ignorance leads to abuse - ABUSE is "abnormal use." You will misuse what you do not understand. You will mishandle what you cannot interpret. You will miss opportunities you cannot recognise. Do not allow such a tragedy in this season of God With Us.

Break Free from Blindness

Christ came to bring LIGHT, not confusion. He came to bring REVELATION, not blindness. He came to free you - not just from sin, but from ignorance.

BE INFORMED. BE TRANSFORMED. BE EMANCIPATED.

Give no room to ignorance at any level. Guard your mind. Pursue wisdom. Seek understanding. Walk in revelation. You are worth the best that God has given - and He has given you His WORD, His SPIRIT, and His LIGHT.

Let this be the month you rise above every trace of ignorance and walk in the knowledge that makes for victory, clarity, and godly living in Christ Jesus.

SELAH - PAUSE AND THINK.

THIS DECEMBER – THIS CHRISTMAS: YOUR TEN SPECIAL CHRISTMAS WISDOM NUGGET DIGEST

This December… this Christmas, you are invited into a season that is far more than lights, gifting, or festivity. Christmas is the yearly commemoration and celebration of God's love to mankind, expressed in the birth of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, and in His redemptive work for the good of all humanity.

To help you walk through this season in wisdom, balance, and spiritual clarity, here are Ten Christmas Wisdom Nuggets - simple principles that will secure you in grace and blessedness as you journey through December.

1. Prepare Your Soul for Christmas

Romans 12:1–2; Revelation 3:20; Luke 2:7b
This season, prepare room in the inner chambers of your heart for the Lord. Christmas becomes meaningful only when Christ finds a place within you, not just around you.

2. Do Not Burden Yourself With Worry

Matthew 6:25–34
Refuse to allow the pressure of gifts, shopping, and seasonal expectations to weigh you down or drive you into debt. Escape the trap of "buy today and pay later in worry." Anxiety is not a Christmas gift - peace is.

3. Give Yourself Before You Give Your Gift

2 Corinthians 8:1–5; 2 Corinthians 9:7–11; Psalm 49:6–9
God desires your heart first. Your life is more valuable than any material offering. Remember: Giving is living.

4. Don't Measure a Gift by Its Cost

Luke 21:1–5; Matthew 2:11
The value of a gift is in the love behind it - not its price. Even the simplest gift can carry the deepest meaning.

5. Don't Leave Christ Outside Christmas

Matthew 2:13
Joseph stayed attentive to God's instruction during the celebration, and it preserved Jesus from danger. Likewise, stay spiritually sensitive. Don't let Christmas become a time when spiritual neglect opens doors for harm.

6. Don't Replace Christ With Seasonal Characters

Ephesians 3:13–14; Colossians 1:27; Luke 2:11
Father Christmas is not your Saviour - Christ is. Avoid practices or performances that distort the meaning of Christmas or promote fear instead of joy.

7. Do Not Neglect the Needy

James 1:27; 2:14–20; Deuteronomy 15:11; Mark 14:7
Christmas is a powerful opportunity to extend God's love to those who lack. Someone's answered prayer may be tied to your act of kindness.

8. Don't Neglect Your Church Family

Hebrews 10:25; John 4:20–24; Philippians 3:3; 1 Corinthians 1:9; 14:25
Fellowship keeps your heart aligned with Christ. Worship and service deepen the meaning of Christmas. Decorate your heart before you decorate your home.

9. Embrace Childlike Humility

Mark 10:15
Christmas calls for a child-like heart - simple, trusting, humble - not childish behaviour. Choose purity of spirit over seasonal recklessness.

10. Worship God With Your Heart and Your Life

Matthew 2:11; John 3:16; Revelation 3:20; John 1:12
Let Christ be the center of your celebration. Set your affection on Him, and give Him your heart in worship, honour, and love.

And Finally…
Keep selfishness out of your Christmas. Selfishness makes Christmas a burden.
Love makes Christmas peaceful, joyful, and meaningful.

Remember:
Giving is living. Contentment is great gain. Christ is the reason for the season.
Wishing you a Merry Christmas of peace, goodwill, and overflowing grace.
May your commemoration and celebration be drenched in God's love and blessedness in Christ Jesus. Amen.

LIVING WHOLE THIS SEASON: HEALTH, PEACE & THE PRESENCE OF EMMANUEL

December often comes with excitement, celebrations, travels, gatherings, and increased activity - but it also comes with stress, fatigue, and emotional overload for many. As we reflect on Jesus Christ our Emmanuel - God with Us, this is a beautiful reminder that God desires our wholeness - spirit, soul, and body.
Living whole this season starts with acknowledging that God is present in the details of our daily wellbeing. Jesus came not only to save us spiritually, but to demonstrate a life of balance, rest, compassion, wisdom, and healthy stewardship of the body.

Here are lifestyle and medical insights to help you stay whole and aligned this season:

1. Rest Well - Emmanuel is Your Peace

Rest is not laziness; it is spiritual alignment. Medical studies show that proper sleep boosts immunity, mental clarity, and emotional stability. Jesus often withdrew to quiet places - so should you.

2. Eat Mindfully - Celebrate Without Excess

Holiday meals can be rich. Stay mindful. Include fruits, water, and fibre. Small portions, slow eating. Your body is a temple, and Emmanuel dwells with you in it.

3. Guard Your Heart - Emotional Health Matters

December can trigger loneliness or pressure to "perform." Take slow breaths. Journal. Pray. Speak to someone. Emmanuel is near to the brokenhearted and strengthens those who feel overwhelmed.

4. Move Your Body - Even Gently

Light stretching, walking, or simple routines improve circulation and keep the mind refreshed. Movement is an act of gratitude for the body God gave you.

5. Stay Present - Don't Rush Through Grace

The season is not meant to be survived but savoured. Live intentionally. Notice small joys. Practice Philippians 4:8 in your thoughts. Emmanuel is with you in every moment.

This month, embrace a rhythm of living that honours God's presence within you. Let the awareness of Emmanuel - God With Us - shape how you care for yourself and those around you.

The Angelic Encounter with Joseph –When God Steps Into Human Uncertainty

The story of Christmas is filled with bright lights, angelic songs, and prophetic wonders - but tucked quietly within Matthew's Gospel is a moment often overlooked, yet deeply human: Joseph's encounter with the angel of the Lord.

Joseph was not a prophet. Not a priest. Not a miracle worker.

He was a carpenter - steady, responsible, and faithful. And yet God entrusted him with one of the most delicate, history-altering assignments in Scripture.

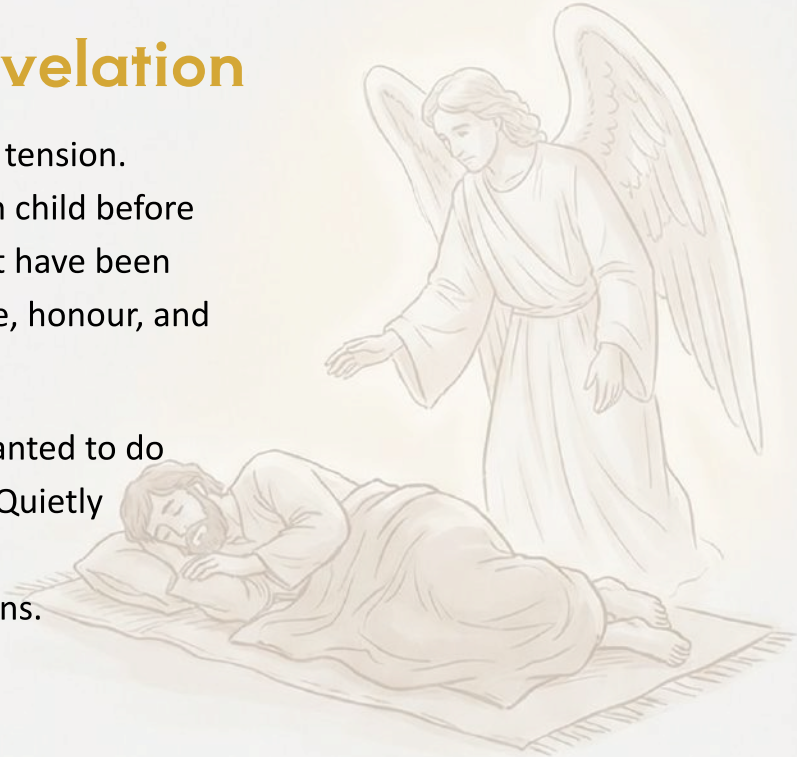
A SHATTERING DISCOVERY

The story begins not with celebration, but with tension.

Mary, Joseph's betrothed, was found to be with child before they came together. For Joseph, this news must have been heartbreaking and confusing - a collision of love, honour, and the unknown.

Scripture calls him "a just man," meaning he wanted to do what was right before God and before people. Quietly ending the engagement seemed like the most compassionate solution, but God had other plans.

Joseph's Fear Meets Revelation



The story begins not with celebration, but with tension. Mary, Joseph's betrothed, was found to be with child before they came together. For Joseph, this news must have been heartbreaking and confusing - a collision of love, honour, and the unknown.

Scripture calls him "a just man," meaning he wanted to do what was right before God and before people. Quietly ending the engagement seemed like the most compassionate solution, but God had other plans.

A SHATTERING DISCOVERY

Just as Joseph had resolved in his heart what to do, an angel appeared to him in a dream, carrying a message that would reshape not only his life but the entire world:

"Joseph, son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." - Matthew 1:20

The angel reminded him of his identity - son of David - anchoring Joseph in his prophetic lineage. Even in moments of confusion, God speaks to who we truly are.

Then came the revelation: Mary's child was divine. Holy. Fulfillment of ancient prophecy. The long-awaited Saviour.

THE EMMANUEL PROPHECY

The angel's message culminated in one of the most profound declarations in Scripture:

"They shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

- Matthew 1:23

This was not merely a name - it was an announcement.

God was no longer distant. No longer behind the veil. No longer speaking only through prophet. He was stepping into the world - into families, into decisions, into the lives of ordinary people like Joseph.

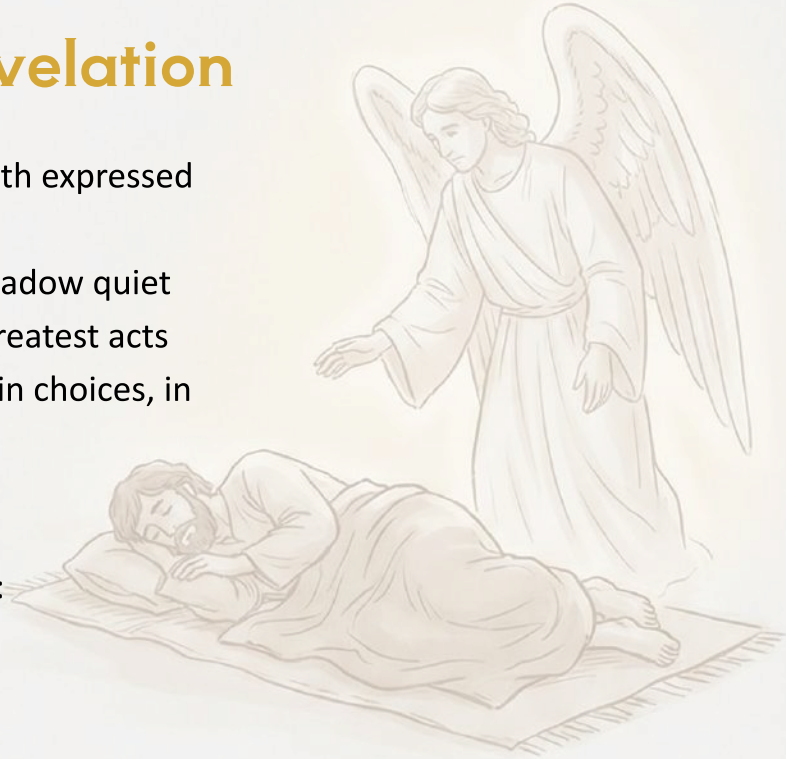
JOSEPH'S QUIET OBEDIENCE

Joseph's response is one of the most inspiring aspects of this story. There were no arguments, no hesitation, no recorded questions.

The Bible simply says:

"Then Joseph... did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him." - Matthew 1:24.

Joseph's Fear Meets Revelation



Silent obedience. Courage without spotlight. Faith expressed in responsibility.
In a world where dramatic displays often overshadow quiet devotion, Joseph reminds us that some of the greatest acts of faith are done in the background - in homes, in choices, in private obedience.

What This Means for Us Today
Joseph's moment is our message this Christmas:

- God meets us in our uncertainties.
- He reassures us of our identity.
- He guides us into His will with divine clarity.
- He calls us to trust Him, even when the path is unfamiliar.

As we reflect on the birth of Christ this month, may Joseph's story remind us that Emmanuel is not just about God coming to earth - it is about God coming into our lives, our decisions, our fears, and our future.
Wherever you find yourself today - confused, unsure, or quietly trying to do what is right - remember this:
God is with us. God is with you.

God is with me, in me, and for me. I do not walk alone.
My December is crowned with goodness; my ending shall be better than my beginning.
The wisdom of God guides me; I do not walk in confusion.
This month, I enact and express divine love - it shapes my decisions, my actions, and my responses.

My life has meaning, direction, and God-ordained purpose. Every day of December positions me for the plans the Father has prepared for my new year.
I do not declare that the former days were better; I expect God's best now. I choose faith-filled speech and a heavenly perspective.

The Word of God enlightens me; I am informed, transformed, and equipped. My spirit is teachable, my mind is alert, and my heart is open to growth.
Christmas is my celebration of God's love and redemption in Christ. I remember the purpose of His coming: salvation, victory, and restored fellowship.
I transition into the coming year with peace, gratitude, and grace.

HOPE BEHIND THE WALLS

A Prison Outreach That Carried Light Into Confinement

On Friday, 28th November 2025, a silent move of God swept through the grounds of the Port Harcourt Correctional Centre - not with fanfare, but with footsteps carrying purpose, compassion, and the unashamed message of hope. In partnership with the Raham Foundation, the CEFMORSI International Foundation (CIF) stepped behind prison walls to remind men in confinement that although bars may restrain their bodies, God's love remains unconstrained.

For the CIF Coordinator, Mrs. Oladimeji, the mission began long before arrival. Travelling first from Ado-Ekiti to Akure, then embarking on an 11-hour trip to Port Harcourt, she carried the mandate of the ministry across states and through exhaustion. Upon arrival, she was warmly received by Mrs. Golda, another CIF representative. Both were lodged at D'Manuel Hotel, where they prepared spiritually and mentally for the assignment ahead.

On the morning of the outreach, the team set out early - ready, expectant, and deeply aware that someone's life could change forever.

A Journey Fueled by Assignment

This was no ordinary outreach. It was a visitation drenched in sacrifice, marked by long travel hours, heartfelt testimonies, life-giving gifts, and the undeniable touch of Emmanuel - God with us - even in the most forgotten places.

The team arrived at the correctional facility and observed strict procedures: waiting for approval, undergoing searches, and surrendering electronic devices.

Every donated item - exercise books, pens, chalk, markers, food, and drinks - was inspected before entry. Once cleared, the team was guided into the prison chapel, where the atmosphere instantly shifted.

Inmates led the opening prayers.
Inmates raised the praise.
And in those moments, the chapel felt less like confinement and more like holy ground.

Testimonies That Broke the Room

Two former inmates stood before the gathering - men who had tasted both the bitterness of imprisonment and the sweetness of divine mercy.

Pst Steve

Once sentenced to death by hanging, after a tragic altercation, he spent over 14 years behind bars. But God rewrote his story. Today, he stands as an ordained minister, preaching life where death once hovered. His message was simple yet piercing:
"With God, all things are possible."

Evangelist Akaraka

A man who entered prison as another inmate but left as a redeemed evangelist. Prison became the place where he learned to read and write, found Christ, and discovered purpose. Now he travels - often back into prisons - to declare that God transforms destinies.

Their stories strengthened the inmates, stirring hope, and renewed faith.

When Dr. Mrs. Maureen G. Nwaeze, Director of Raham Foundation, stepped forward, the chapel erupted. The inmates recognised her - not just as a visitor, but as a promise keeper. She reminded them of her vow to return with writing materials and food - and she fulfilled it. She assured them more help was coming - including legal support for those with minor or mishandled cases.

Her voice carried the weight of compassion and responsibility. She spoke like a mother addressing her sons.

Representing CIF, Mrs. Oladimeji and Mrs. Golda addressed the inmates with warmth and spiritual conviction. They shared the heart of Rev. Chukie Morsi - CIF President - whose passion for souls and unwavering support fueled this partnership.
Their message was clear:

There is hope. There is love. There is redemption.
And as long as there is life, God is not done with you.

A Gift of Care

After prayers and blessings, food and drinks were distributed individually to inmates. What seemed like "just packages" carried deeper meaning - someone remembered them, valued them, and cared enough to give.

The Impact Lives On

After more than two hours, the outreach ended, but its effect remained. The team departed by 4:00 p.m., hearts full, grateful, and deeply moved by the power of what God had done.
This was not simply an event - it was a rescue mission, a reminder that light still enters dark places, and a declaration that redemption can find you even behind bars.

Appreciation

- To God Almighty, who went ahead of every step and touched every soul.
- To Dr. Mrs. Maureen Nwaeze and the Raham Foundation team, for their relentless compassion.
- To Rev. Chukie Morsi, whose vision and sponsorship strengthened the mission.
- To the CIF representatives, for standing as vessels of hope.
- To the former inmates/testifiers, who turned their pain into purpose.
- And to the correctional centre authorities, for their cooperation.
