TETELESTAI: THE FINAL VERDICT OF REDEMPTION

There are moments in history that shape nations, decisions that alter economies, redirect policies, and determine the course of lives. And then, there is one decision that settled eternity.

April comes with its own significance across the world. In some nations, it marks the beginning of a new financial year - a time when governments establish budgets, define priorities, and make decisions that will influence the lives of millions. Policies are drafted. Structures are adjusted. Futures are forecasted, and rightly so; these decisions matter.

But beyond the systems of men... beyond the councils of nations... there is a greater question:

Do you know what has already been decided concerning you?

In the commemoration and celebration of the crucifixion, death, burial, resurrection, ascension, and enthronement of our Lord and Saviour King - Jesus Christ - we are brought face to face with a divine declaration that transcends time, systems, and circumstances. A single word:

Tetelestai - "It is finished." (John 19:30)

This was not a cry of defeat. It was not the end of a struggle. It was the announcement of completion. The declaration of fulfilment. The finalisation of a divine plan.

A transaction was concluded. A debt was fully paid. Redemption was eternally secured.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE

As I reflect on the privilege and grace to bring this April edition your way, my heart is lifted in gratitude - not only for the breath of life sustained daily by the Spirit of God (Genesis 2:7; Job 33:4; Job 32:8; Proverbs 20:27), but for the revelation He continues to unfold to us.

Because redemption is not merely a doctrine to be studied - It is a reality to be known and lived.

In preparing for this edition, my spirit became deeply aware of a force that must be confronted in our time: The tendency to live as though nothing has been finished.

Many are still striving...

Still negotiating their worth...

Still uncertain about their standing with God...

Still searching for what has already been secured.

While governments are making decisions that shape economies, God has already made a decision that defines your destiny.

As it is written:

"For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you..." - Jeremiah 29:11 (Amplified)

"Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper..." - 3 John 2

"I am come that they might have life..." - John 10:10

These are not future intentions awaiting approval. They are realities established in redemption.

The death of Jesus on the cross did not initiate a possibility - It completed a certainty.

The resurrection did not introduce hope - It confirmed victory.

The enthronement of Christ did not suggest authority - It established dominion.

Therefore, this edition is not merely a reflection on the commemoration of the death, burial, resurrection, and enthronement of Christ. It is a call to awakening.

A call to step out of uncertainty into understanding.

A call to move from striving into rest.

A call to live from what has already been finished.

Because the truth remains:

If it is finished, then it is settled.

If it is settled, then it is yours.

And if it is yours, then live like it!!!

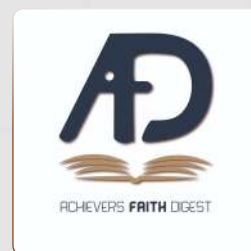

Welcome to the April 2026 Edition.

Tetelestai - It is finished.

Your redemption is a done deal.

OUR REDEMPTION - THE GOOD NEWS OF BEING REDEEMED

“The LORD our God spoke unto us in Horeb, saying, ‘You have dwelt long enough in this mountain. Turn, and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all the neighbouring regions—in the plain, in the hills, in the valley, in the south, and by the sea coast—to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates. Behold, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—to give to them and their descendants after them.’” Deuteronomy 1:6–8 [Galatians 3:13–14, Ephesians 1:3, Galatians 3:26–29]

The Good News of Redemption

The good news - regardless of the decisions made by governments and nations in their respective budgets - is that a decision has already been made concerning you in redemption. Your promised blessing in redemption has already been paid for. You do not need to rest your life solely on national systems or economic conditions. Rather, arise in a bold spirit of faith, lay hold of the higher life, and begin to possess your inheritance in Christ.

In God, you are not a victim of circumstances - you are a steward of destiny.

Redeemed to Possess

No matter how uncertain or unfavourable your situation may appear today, be assured of this: Christ has redeemed you from stagnation and setbacks into a life of blessing.

Your redemption comes fully paid.

God desires to see you flourish - to step into purpose and possess the promises He has given as your inheritance in Christ Jesus (Ephesians 1:3, 11, 14).

Your Place in God’s Design

Among all of God’s creation, humanity stands uniquely upright. This is not by accident, but by design. It reflects your position, your authority, and your capacity.

Through Christ, your promised blessing in redemption is not pending - it is complete.

This is the good news:

- You are not waiting to be blessed - you are already blessed (Ephesians 1:3).
- You are not striving to belong - you already belong (Galatians 3:26–29).
- You are not hoping for access - you have been given an inheritance.

You have been fashioned with the ability to rise, to advance, and to possess your promised land. Arise. Step forward. Possess what has already been given.

Your redemption is not a future promise - it is a present reality.

OUR REDEMPTION: THE ACT THAT UNIDID LIFE'S ERROR

“There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler: Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.” Ecclesiastes 10:5–7 [Revelation 5:9–10, Revelation 1:5–6, 1 Peter 2:5, 9, Romans 5:17]

A man's ignorance or foolishness becomes his own mountain. The wisdom of God - knowledge and understanding to discern the differences in times and seasons - is the principal tool that delivers, liberates, and empowers one to possess one's inheritance, with the full assurance that our promised land – Redemption - has already been paid for.

Ecclesiastes 10:5–7 reveals that there is an evil and an error under the sun. Those whom God has redeemed and ordained to be princes and princesses in Christ are often found occupying lowly positions in life. They walk as servants - barefooted, struggling, and in many cases settling for what remains - while those who are yet to know God, the unchurched and unbelieving, are elevated, honoured, and positioned in places of influence, riding on horses and enjoying dignity.

Have you ever wondered why unbelievers seem to prosper, while you - armed with the Word of God - are yet to experience the fullness of His promises? This becomes even more pressing when you consider scriptures such as Revelation 5:9–10, Revelation 1:5–6, 1 Peter 2:9, and Romans 5:17, which clearly declare that you are part of a royal priesthood and are ordained to reign in life.

According to the Word:

- You are made a king and a priest (Revelation 1:5–6; 1 Peter 2:9)
- You are called to reign in life (Romans 5:17)
- You are redeemed to dominion (Revelation 5:9–10)

Indeed, there is an error under the sun. This is why this edition is brought to you - so that, by the grace of God, this error may be corrected in you and through you.

Why does this error persist?

It is because many believers in Christ have not learnt to appropriate and translate spiritual realities into physical manifestation (Ephesians 1:3). We are aware of God's promises, yet we continue to live beneath their reality - trapped in mediocrity and ignorance, failing to actualise all that pertains to life and godliness.

You Have Dwelt Long Enough

This is why God instructed Moses to speak to the children of Israel in Deuteronomy 1:6 concerning their stagnation - a condition contrary to their promised inheritance:

“The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount: turn you, and take your journey...”

We must arise and possess our promised land – Redemption - because it has been fully paid for. This is the way out of the error under the sun for every child of God.

OUR REDEMPTION - A PROMISED LAND THAT IS FULLY PAID FOR!

“Now the LORD had said unto Abram, ‘Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father’s house, unto a land that I will show thee: and I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: and I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.’ So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed out of Haran. And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother’s son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set out to go into the land of Canaan, and into the land of Canaan they came.” Genesis 12:1–5 [Deuteronomy 1:5–8, Galatians 3:13–14].

We serve a God who does not promise what He cannot deliver. He has ordained your success and your destiny. The Lord appeared to Abraham - the father of our faith - and gave him a promise in Genesis 12:1–5, Genesis 15:7–21, and Genesis 17:9–14. God ensures that all things come to pass exactly as He has spoken.

- A Promised Land - Canaan (a land flowing with milk and honey; a place of peace and tranquillity)
- Descendants - posterity and generational continuity
- Greatness - dignity, favour, honour, and distinction
- Blessedness - grace, prosperity, health, and abundance
- Divine Defence - protection from curses, fear, and the enemy

With nothing but a bold spirit of faith, Abraham and his household moved to possess all that God had promised him.

In Genesis 23:1–20, following the death of Sarah, Abraham purchased a portion of the Promised Land - Hebron in Canaan. He ensured that the land was legally secured with recognised ownership (title deeds), as recorded in Genesis 23:17 and 20. Through this act, the rights and privileges of possession in the land flowing with milk and honey were established for him and for generations after him, according to the Holy Writ (Genesis 12:1–3).

The Significance of Ownership

Owning land signifies:

- Possession
- Stability
- Assurance
- Security
- Legacy
- Fulfilment

It is for this reason that many aspire to own land - because it represents settlement and established inheritance.

A Paid Possession, Yet Unclaimed

When God later instructed Moses to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land (as recorded in Exodus), over 430 years after Abraham had secured its legal right, the people failed to realise that the land had already been paid for.

All that was required was a bold, active faith. Yet, through unbelief, they were unable to appropriate what already belonged to them. Of that generation, only Joshua and Caleb entered the land. The others perished due to fear, doubt, and disobedience [Hebrews 4:1–2].

A Prepared Inheritance

The death of Sarah led to the purchase of the land of Canaan - a place prepared for the fulfilment of God's promises, purposes, and will for His people.

This land was not acquired through war but made ready through one man's obedience. Despite the people's disobedience and lack of faith, the land remained - waiting.

Christ: The Fulfilment of Our Redemption

In the same way, God has fully paid for our redemption through the death of Christ.

The death of Jesus and the shedding of His blood secured our title deed to our promised inheritance - our redemption.

The promises of God, as written in Scripture, have been:

- Certified
- Secured
- Guaranteed
- Established ...by the blood of Jesus Christ (Hebrews 6:13 – 10:25).

You can confidently rely on God's unfailing "Yes" in Christ Jesus.

"But as surely as God is faithful and means what He says, our message to you is not 'Yes' and 'No' at the same time. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me, Silvanus, and Timothy—was not 'Yes' and 'No,' but has proved to be 'Yes' in Him. For as many as are the promises of God, in Christ they are 'Yes'; therefore, through Him we say our 'Amen' to the glory of God. Now it is God who establishes and confirms us in Christ, and has anointed us, and has also put His seal on us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee." 2 Corinthians 1:18–22 (Amplified).

The Assurance of Redemption

"He has sent redemption to His people; He has commanded His covenant forever; holy and awesome is His name." Psalm 111:9 [Luke 1:68, Colossians 1:12–14, 1 Corinthians 1:30, 2 Corinthians 5:21].

The promise of your land today is this: You have been redeemed - from sin and all its effects: sickness, poverty, and spiritual death. Your inheritance is not pending. It has been fully paid for. Praise God!! Hallelujah!! Amen!!

OUR REDEMPTION - APPROPRIATE, ENACT, AND POSSESS IT BY WISDOM!

"Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgement." Ecclesiastes 8:5 [Proverbs 13:15, Proverbs 21:16, Proverbs 24:5].

Wisdom is the enabling grace to discern times and make right judgements. It is the ability to recognise differences and make sound decisions in the issues of life that confront us daily.

When we consider the suffering of the children of Israel - rooted in ignorance and a lack of trust in God - we may be tempted to blame them. However, their failure lay in their inability to appropriate and enact the reality of their promised blessings. God, through Moses, instructed them to go and possess the Promised Land in order to actualise His plans and purposes for their lives.

OUR REDEMPTION – PURSUE THE WILL, THEN THE BLESSEDNESS!

“Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.” Hebrews 10:35–36 [Revelation 5:9–12, Hebrews 6:9–12, Galatians 3:13–14].

Why should you remain stagnant in faith and in the attainment of promised blessings when everything has already been paid for?

The blood of Jesus, shed in His death, carries no Adamic nature, as His conception was by the Holy Spirit. His blood possesses the divine power and grace to usher us into the fullness of God’s promises.

Hebrews 10:35–36 exhorts us to pursue the will of God first, so that we may receive the fullness of His promises (Hebrews 6:9–12; Galatians 3:13–14). The book of Hebrews emphasises the need for confidence, perseverance, and patience in order to inherit these promises.

The reason is clear: God does not want us to repeat the mistakes of those before us - pursuing the promises instead of the Promiser. In other words, seek the Giver, not merely the gift.

How then do we possess the land?

Knowing and aligning with the will of God is the key to possessing - appropriating and enacting - our Promised Land of redemption. It is the place where we experience the fullness of God and His blessings.

“... after you have DONE the WILL (lined up your life with God’s plan, purpose and pursuit), you might RECEIVE the BLESSINGS [Promised Land (Possession) of God]” Hebrews 10:36 /Emphasis mine.

The promises of God are sure and true. Revelation 5:12 reveals seven redemptive provisions secured for us in Christ - covenanted blessings obtained on our behalf.

THE SEVEN REDEMPTIVE COVENANT PROVISIONS (REVELATION 5:12)

- Power (Authority) – In place of fear, oppression, and intimidation (Luke 10:19; 2 Timothy 1:7)
- Riches (Prosperity) – In place of lack and poverty (2 Corinthians 8:9; Philippians 4:19)
- Wisdom (Mental Soundness) – In place of ignorance and foolishness (James 1:5; Proverbs 4:7)
- Strength (Vitality) – In place of weakness and sickness (Isaiah 40:28–31; Philippians 4:13)
- Honour (Dignity) – In place of shame and inferiority (Ephesians 1:7; 2 Timothy 1:7)
- Glory (Beauty) – In place of reproach (Isaiah 61:3; 1 Peter 2:9–10)
- Blessing (Grace) – In place of curses and stagnation (Ephesians 1:3; Proverbs 10:22)

Through His death, burial, resurrection, and enthronement, Christ led captivity captive (Ephesians 4:8; Psalm 68:18), securing our redemption and restoring our rights and privileges in God.

OUR REDEMPTION FINALE – POSSESSING YOUR PROMISED LAND

“He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant forever: holy and reverend is his name.” Psalm 111:9 [Luke 1:68, 1 Corinthians 1:30].

God has given redemption, but it remains the believer’s responsibility to possess it. Everything we need is found in Christ.

This truth was demonstrated in Luke 13:10–17, where the woman - called a “daughter of Abraham” - was set free after eighteen years of infirmity. Jesus had already secured her liberty; she only needed to receive it.

Before possessing your Promised Land, you must also contend in faith. Some promises require a good fight of faith (Matthew 11:12; 1 Timothy 6:12).

Possession begins with the soul - the mind, will, and emotions. If you can bring your inner life into alignment with God’s will, you will see His promises manifested [Luke 21:19].

2 Corinthians 10:3–6 reminds us that victory comes through bringing every thought into obedience to Christ.

If you cultivate your soul daily with God’s Word - believing and speaking truth rather than focusing on facts - you will experience abundance. [Proverbs 12:11, Proverbs 28:19].

You become and achieve according to your faith [Habakkuk 2:4, Matthew 9:29].

I pray that God lifts you from the natural into the supernatural - a consciousness that you are a divine project, and that He will not abandon you.

By His grace, you will not walk in an “April fool” mentality, but in an “April wise” consciousness. Have a blessed and fruitful month as we commemorate and celebrate Christ Jesus this season - knowing that your Promised Land, REDEMPTION, is a done deal.

Amen.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

RESTING THE MIND: THE PSYCHOLOGY OF TETELESTAI

From Anxiety to Assurance

One of the greatest sources of mental strain is uncertainty.

Am I enough? Have I done enough? Will things ever be okay?

This inner questioning fuels anxiety - keeping the mind in a constant state of striving, overthinking, and emotional unrest.

But the declaration of Christ on the cross - "It is finished" (Tetelestai) - interrupts this cycle. It replaces uncertainty with certainty. Striving with settlement. Fear with assurance.

When the mind truly receives Tetelestai, it no longer lives in suspense. It rests in what has already been completed.

Mental Rest Through Spiritual Certainty

The human mind was not designed to carry the burden of unfinished redemption.

Trying to "earn" what has already been given creates:

- Mental fatigue
- Emotional instability
- Spiritual confusion

But Tetelestai - paid in full, completed, accomplished - introduces a new way of thinking:

You are not working towards acceptance. You are living from acceptance. This shift produces deep mental rest. It quiets the internal pressure to perform and replaces it with the peace of knowing: "Nothing about your redemption is pending".

Certainty stabilises the mind, and spiritual truth becomes psychological relief.

Identity-Based Emotional Stability

Emotions are often shaped by perception - and perception is shaped by identity.

When identity is unclear, emotions fluctuate:

HEALTH & WELLNESS

RESTING THE MIND: THE PSYCHOLOGY OF TETELESTAI

- One day confident
- Another day insecure
- One moment hopeful
- The next overwhelmed

But when identity is rooted in a finished work, stability emerges.

Through Tetelestai:

- You are redeemed
- You are justified
- You are accepted

Not conditionally. Not temporarily. But completely.

This truth anchors your emotions. You are no longer reacting to life from a place of lack - but responding from a place of wholeness.

Practising the Rest

Mental rest is not passivity - it is alignment.

Here's how to intentionally live in the reality of Tetelestai:

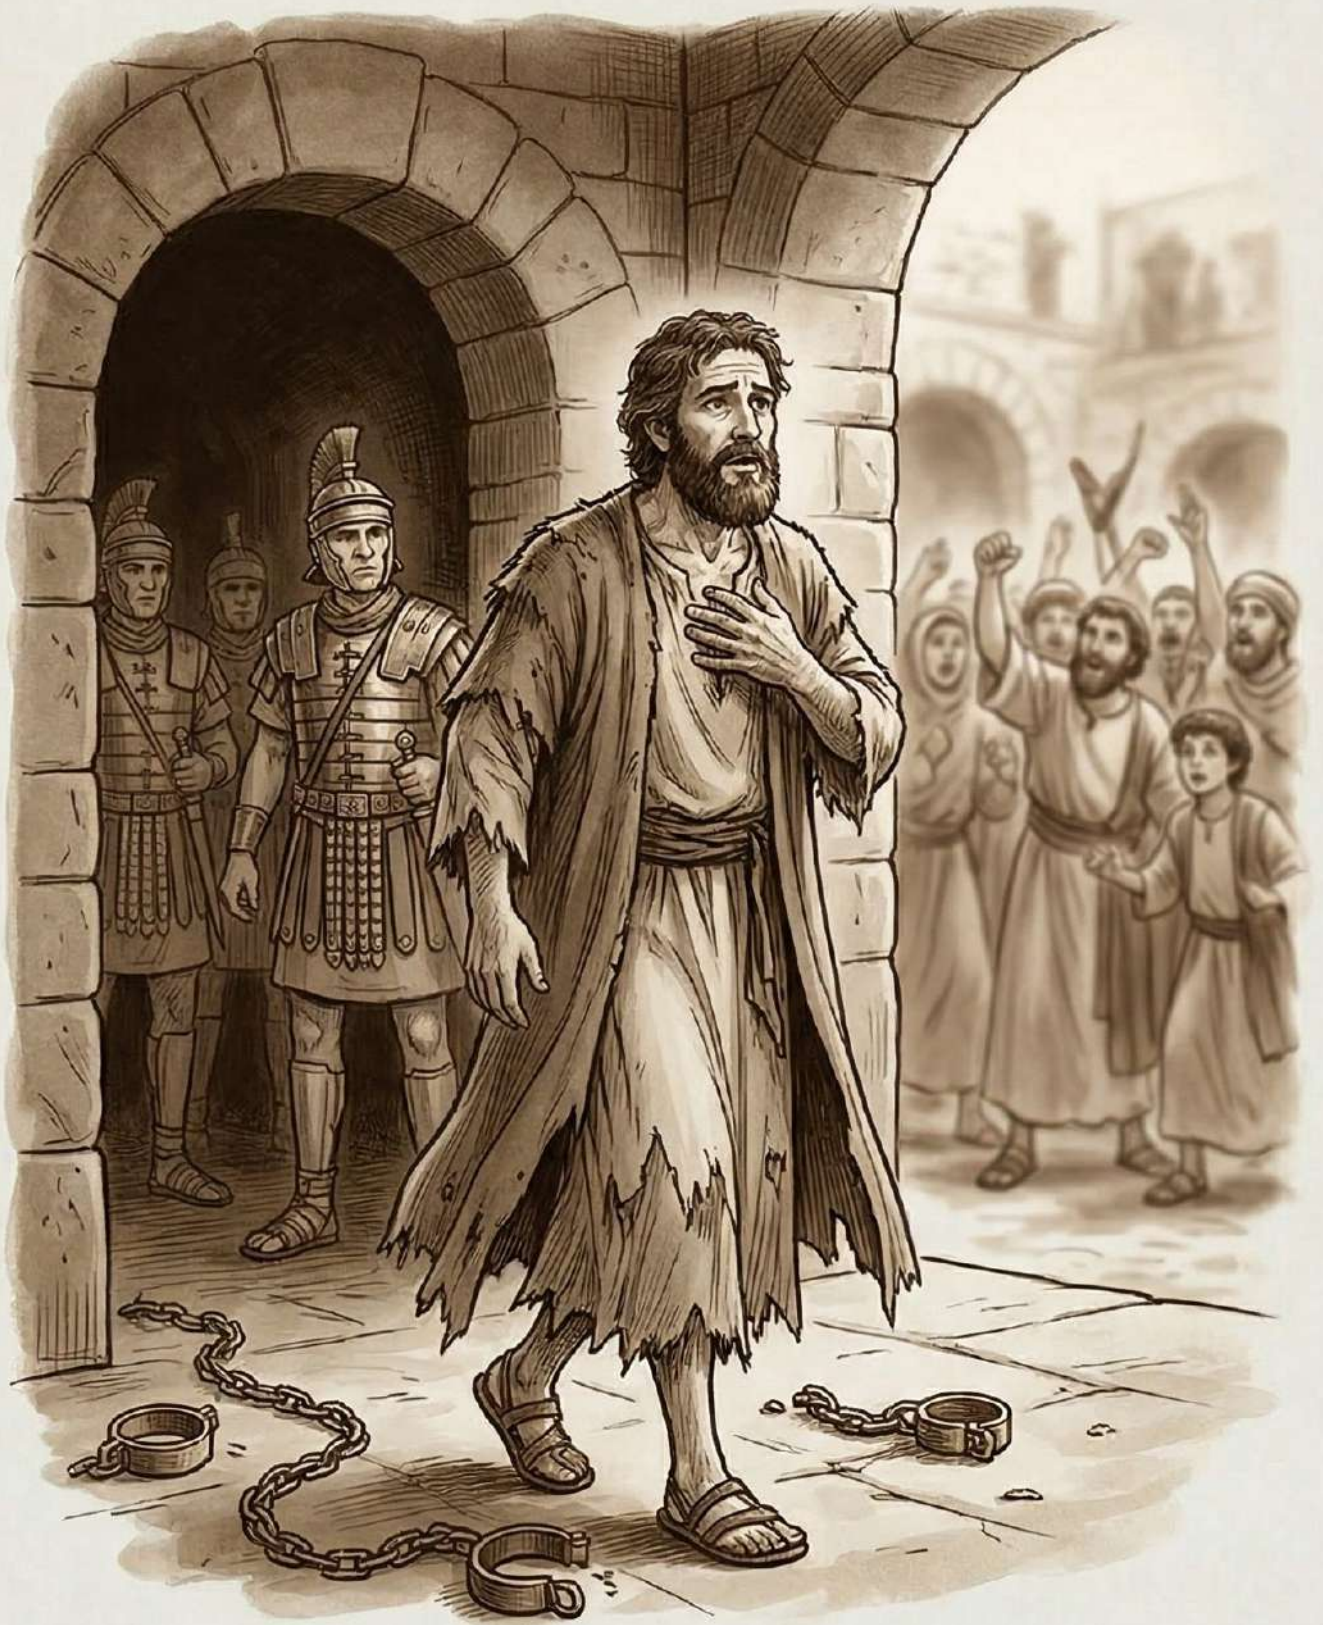

- Pause and remind yourself daily: It is finished.
- Interrupt anxious thoughts with truth, not speculation
- Meditate on completed realities, not pending fears
- Speak identity-based affirmations rooted in redemption

Reflection

The mind finds peace not when everything around you is resolved - but when you realise that everything that truly matters... already is.

Tetelestai - It is finished.

And because it is finished - you can finally rest.

BIBLE CHARACTER SPOTLIGHT: BARABBAS - THE GUILTY SET FREE

BIBLE CHARACTER SPOTLIGHT: BARABBAS - THE GUILTY SET FREE

Anchor Scriptures: Matthew 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15; Luke 23:18–25; John 18:38–40

The Man Who Should Have Died

Barabbas was not misunderstood. He was not falsely accused. He was guilty.

A known criminal - an insurrectionist, a man of violence, deserving of punishment under Roman law. His sentence was clear. His end was certain.

And yet... his story took an unexpected turn.

The Great Exchange

At the trial of Jesus Christ, a custom was presented: one prisoner could be released.

The crowd had a choice: Barabbas... or Jesus.

One guilty. One innocent. And they cried out: "Not this man, but Barabbas!"

In that moment, something profound happened - the guilty was set free, and the innocent was condemned. Barabbas walked away alive... Because Jesus took his place.

A Mirror of Redemption

Barabbas is not just a historical figure; he is a reflection of us all. We were the guilty ones. Bound by sin. Deserving judgement.

Yet through Christ:

- We are released
- Our sentence is cancelled
- Our guilt is removed

This is the essence of redemption - substitution.

He took your place... So, you could take His.

The Silence of Barabbas

Scripture records no words from Barabbas; No defence. No gratitude. No explanation.

Just freedom. Perhaps because some truths are too overwhelming for words. Or perhaps because redemption is not earned by speech - it is received by grace.

The Question That Remains

Barabbas was given a second chance; What did he do with it? Scripture is silent.

BIBLE CHARACTER SPOTLIGHT: BARABBAS - THE GUILTY SET FREE

Anchor Scriptures: Matthew 27:15–26; Mark 15:6–15; Luke 23:18–25; John 18:38–40

But the question speaks loudly to us:

What will you do with the life Christ has given you?

Key Message

The cross was meant for you - but Christ took your place.

Reflection

- Am I living as one truly set free?
- Have I embraced the weight of what was exchanged for me?
- Am I still carrying guilt Christ has already taken?

Closing Thought

Barabbas walked away from the cross that had his name on it.

You have too.

Live like it.

THEOLOGICAL INSIGHT BOX

JUSTIFICATION VS CONDEMNATION

What is Justification?

Justification is a legal and spiritual act of God whereby the believer is declared righteous through faith in Christ Jesus.

It is not earned. It is not gradual. It is not based on human effort. It is a finished reality rooted in the completed work of Christ.

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” -

Romans 5:1

Through justification:

- Your sins are forgiven
- Your record is cleared
- Your standing before God is made right
- You are accepted as righteous in Christ

Justification is not becoming righteous over time - It is being declared righteous instantly in Christ.

What is Condemnation?

Condemnation is the state of guilt, judgement, and separation from God resulting from sin.

It carries:

- A sense of unworthiness
- Fear of judgement
- Spiritual distance from God
- A continual awareness of failure

Condemnation keeps a person bound to sin-consciousness rather than Christ-consciousness. But here is the truth:

“There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus...” - Romans 8:1

The Great Exchange

At the cross, a divine exchange took place:

THEOLOGICAL INSIGHT BOX

JUSTIFICATION VS CONDEMNATION

“For He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.” - 2 Corinthians 5:21

- Christ took your sin
- You received His righteousness
- Christ bore your condemnation
- You received justification

This is the essence of redemption.

Why This Matters

Many believers are justified in Christ, yet still live as though condemned.

They pray from guilt. They live from fear. They struggle to receive what has already been given.

But understanding justification changes everything:

- You relate to God from acceptance, not rejection
- You live from identity, not insecurity
- You walk in boldness, not shame

Redemption Reality

Condemnation says: “You are not enough.”

Justification declares: “You are accepted in Christ.”

Condemnation keeps you striving. Justification brings you into rest.

Condemnation looks at your past. Justification secures your future.

Final Truth

If you are in Christ:

You are not on trial.

The verdict has already been given.

JUSTIFIED.

AFFIRMATIONS

I Live from a Finished Redemption

I stand in the reality of Tetelestai. What Jesus Christ accomplished is complete, settled, and eternal.

I do not strive for what has already been secured. I do not chase what has already been given. I live from a finished work.

I am redeemed, not becoming redeemed

I am justified, not trying to be

I am accepted, not seeking approval

I am righteous, not working for righteousness

I am forgiven, not earning forgiveness

I live from victory, not towards it

I stand in grace, not in performance

I walk in freedom, not in bondage

I operate from wholeness, not from lack

Nothing about my redemption is pending. Nothing about my identity is uncertain. Nothing about God's work in me is incomplete

I refuse anxiety rooted in "not enough". I embrace assurance rooted in finished truth.

Today, I rest in what Christ has done.

Today, I walk in who I already am.

Today, I live with boldness, clarity, and peace.

I am not striving. I am not guessing. I am not unsettled.

It is finished. I am redeemed. I am established. I live from a finished redemption.
